General Comment

Not allowing me,the owner of an IRA, to trade options in my IRA will cause me to have to close it, paying taxes on it, reducing the amount of money to invest. This will do nothing to help my retirement. It will be a huge blow to my financial future.

Trading options is safer than buying stock, and a heck of a lot better than investing in mutual funds

Do not prevent people from using options in a retirement account!

Thank you,
WR
